Copyright Agreement

Title: Symposium on Solid Waste Refinery

The undersigned author has submitted a manuscript titled: "Your Paper's Title Starts here: Please Centerase Helvetica (Arial) 14" (the "Paper") to be published in one of the periodicals by Trans Tech Publications Ltd., Reinthaedstrasse 18, CH-8008 Zurich, Switzerland (the "Publisher").

1. The author grants to the Publisher the exclusive rights to the Paper during the full term of copyright, the exclusive rights comprised in the copyright of the Paper, including but not limited to the right to publish the Paper and the material contained therein throughout the world, in all languages and in all media of expression now known or later developed, and to license or permit others to do so.
2. Notwithstanding the above, the author retains the right to:
 1. Make copies of the Paper for author's use in classroom teaching.
 2. Use, after publication, the entire Paper or its parts in a book by the author, or a collection of author's work.
 3. Make copies of the Paper for internal distribution within the institution which employs the author.
 4. Use figures and tables of the Paper and up to 250 words of text for any purpose.
 5. Make oral presentations using the material from the Paper.
 6. Publish an extended, updated or rewritten version in another periodical.
 7. Deposit the Paper (postprint or preprint) in non-open access institutional repository.
 8. And proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.

The author agrees that all copies made under any of the above conditions will include a notice of copyright and a citation to the Paper.

3. In the case of a Paper prepared under U.S. Government contract, the U.S. Government may reproduce, royalty-free, all or portions of the Paper and may authorize others to do so, for official U.S. Government purpose only, if the U.S. Government contract so requires. A copy of the contract must be attached.
4. If the Paper was written as a work made for hire in the course of employment, the Paper is owned by the company/employer who must accept the Copyright Agreement. In this case, the Publisher hereby licenses back to such employer the right to use the Paper internally or for promotional purpose only.
5. The author warrants that the Paper is author's original work. If the Paper was prepared in co-authorship, the author is obliged to inform the co-authors of the terms of the Copyright Agreement and obtain the consent to accept it on their behalf. Author guarantees that the Paper has not been submitted or published elsewhere. (If excerpts from copyrighted works included, Author should have a written permission from the copyright owners and credit to the sources in the Paper.) The author also states that, to the best of their knowledge, the Paper contains no libelous or unlawful statements, does not infringe on the rights of others, or contain material or instructions that might cause harm or injury.

Note to U.S. Government Employees

A Paper prepared by U.S. federal government employee as part of his/her official duties is called a "U.S. Government work", and is in the public domain in the United States; in such case, Paragraph A above applies only outside the United States. Please attach a copy of any applicable policy of the author's agency. If the Paper was prepared jointly, and any co-author is not a U.S. Government employee, it is not a U.S. Government work. That co-author should be delegated by the other co-authors to accept the Copyright Agreement. If the Paper was not prepared as part of the employee's duties, it is not a U.S. Government work.

The acceptance of the terms of the Copyright Agreement is mandatory during the submission of a manuscript via the online submission system

By the acceptance, author agrees to receive login information for author access on www.scientific.net and to receive information via email for future books and specials related to materials science. This service can be canceled at any time.
